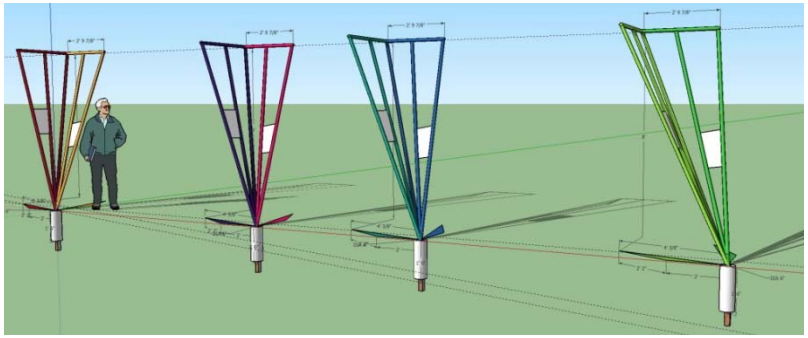
TEMPO

AUSTIN ART IN PUBLIC PLACES 30 YEARS 1985-2015



Jennifer Chenoweth & Dorothy Johnson

The Public Sentiment Campaign

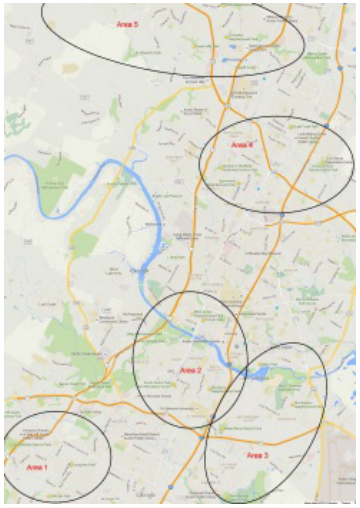
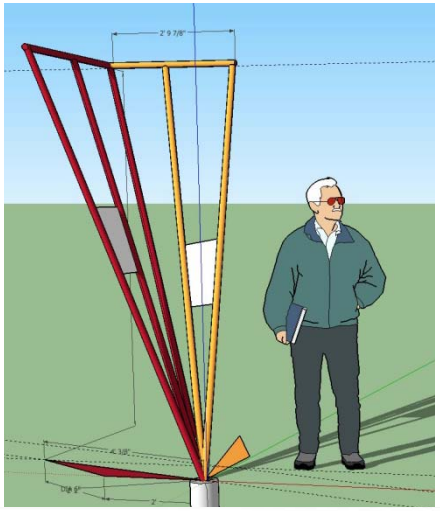
(1) August 24 - September 13
Longview Park, Silk Oak Park, Dick Nichols Park;
(2) September 14 - October 11
West Austin Park, Duncan Park, South Austin Park, Big Stacy Park;
(3) October 12 - November 8
Dove Springs Park, Mabel Davis Park, Metz Park, Montopolis Park;
(4) November 9 - December 6
Brentwood Park, Beverly S. Sheffield Park, Gus Garcia Park, Quail Creek Park;
(5) December 7 - January 4
Pickfair Park, Schroeter Park, Great Hills Park, Riata Park





Districts: 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9

Materials: steel, aluminum, concrete, vinyl printed signs

Size: 8' t x 3' w x 4' d

Description: A campaign of four whimsical signage and collected personal narratives will engage viewers in the parks they may visit on a regular basis. Personal quotes are taken from anonymous, survey responses. Images of are shared though social media @xyzatlas.

Concept: Playful signage investigates the meaning of our life experiences by creating interactions with the artworks and gives a context on how we connect with visual concepts, each other, and ourselves.

CITY OF AUSTIN FOUNDED 1839