

2016 City of Austin Employee Youth Camp Scholarship Program

The 2016 Youth Camp Scholarship Program is open to all regular City of Austin employees with dependent children ages 5 through 12, and older children with special needs. Employees can receive up to $50 per child, per week reduction in the cost of spring and summer camp fees at City of Austin Parks and Recreation Department (PARC) camps. Payments are only made for attendance at week-long, all-day camps.

You must apply for this program by the following deadlines to be approved for funding:

Spring Break - 5 p.m., March 4, 2016

Summer Break - 5 p.m., May 6, 2016

Only dependent children of regular City of Austin Employees are eligible for this program. Eligible children include:

- Biological children, stepchildren, legally adopted children, children for whom you have obtained court-ordered guardianship or conservatorship, and qualified children placed pending adoption.
- Dependent grandchildren must meet the requirements stated above, and must qualify as a dependent, as defined by the IRS, on your or your spouse's Federal income tax return at the time of enrollment.

Nieces, nephews, visiting grandchildren, friend's children, etc., are not eligible.

Be prepared to present your employee identification number and an employee identification badge when registering and paying for your child's enrollment at a PARC camp. For information on how to enroll your children in a Parks and Recreation Department program, contact a recreation, art, or cultural center near your home. Camp registration dates and information can be found at:
