Juan Gabriel: En el Palacio de Bellas Artes

con la Orquesta Sinfónica Nacional Director Enrique Patrón de Rueda.

An unforgettable 90 minutes of music from the incomparable Mexican icon Juan Gabriel.

PAPA Hemingway In CUBA

In 1959, Miami journalist and aspiring writer Ed Myers travels to Havana to meet his idol, Ernest Hemingway. A fascinating and unexpected friendship develops as the legendary author mentors young Myers in deep-sea fishing, drinking - and finding his literary voice - while the Cuban Revolution comes to a boil around them. The first US movie filmed in Cuba in more than half a century.

Angelitos Negros

This is a story of prejudice and sacrifice. The plot centers around a woman who does not realize her heritage, and is brought up as a white wealthy patron's daughter. She learns that she is the daughter of their black life-long house maid.

For a special screening contact Linda Crockett at 512-974-3789 or linda.crockett@austintexas.gov.
