Additional Reviews

What triggers the Historic Review and what action is required of you?

Changing the exterior of a building that is a historic landmark (H zoning), in a historic district (HD zoning), and/or in a National Register historic district requires historic review and approval before submitting to Residential Review. Check the property's status here, and contact the Historic Preservation Office if the property is historic: www.bit.ly/historicaustin.

What triggers the Flood Plain Review and what action is required of you?

Any work requiring a permit on property located within 100 feet of the 100-year flood plain will require additional review. If review is anticipated, include supporting information such as FEMA elevation certificate form 086-0-033 and/or topographic surveys referencing NAVD88.

To check the property for proximity to a flood plain visit www.ATXFloodPro.com or the City's Floodplain Development Information website.
