INTRODUCTION

The Travis County Reentry Resource Guide was created for the benefit of those in need of information regarding resources that may be available to former offenders and their families during the reentry process after incarceration. Not all local services are listed in the guide. We hope that you will use the guide as it was intended – as an information springboard for your success after incarceration.

Providers of basic needs services may have significant waiting periods for services or they may have closed some services to contain costs. Please be patient when calling – these providers are here to help you and many other Travis County residents. Please be aware that there are costs associated with some resources listed in this guide. Planning ahead for your release as far in advance as possible is recommended to ensure that you have an action plan for reentry.

Note: Travis County does not provide information on reentry resources for other Texas Counties. Calling the Statewide Texas 2-1-1 is recommended; See this guide for more information on the Statewide Texas 2-1-1 system for resource information.

The Travis County Reentry Resource Guide is updated annually. Although every effort is made to ensure the accuracy of the information in the guide, some listings may change between each update. We appreciate and welcome your comments, deletions or updates to the Travis County Reentry Resource Guide. Please contact:

You can access 2-1-1 using the telephone or internet:

- Be honest and upfront about your criminal background with the 2-1-1 staff. They are trained resource data specialists and can do a much better job for you if they can look at referrals that you qualify for.
- Be prepared with a pen and paper to take notes when you call. Be specific about what you need when you call. Have a list of written questions ready to go - use them as a guide.

● RELEASE PLANNING

- As you begin planning for your release you first need to take an inventory of issues you may face when you return to the community. All of the areas listed below can interfere with your success in establishing a stable life once you are released. Use the checklist to help determine which areas may be a problem for you. When finished, look at the areas and start developing a plan to address them. This will help you decide what you need to do now to assist in your transition to life on the outside. Dealing with these issues before release may also help make them less overwhelming.

Issues to Face Upon Release	This is a possible problem for me.	I can take care of this.	I need help with this.
Addiction
Lack of money
Transportation
Child Care
Family Problems
Housing
Clothing
Medical
Telephone
Job Skills
Education

Be aware that any of these areas may interfere with a successful plan! Don't ignore them. Life planning takes patience and commitment. TIP: Did you know that the Texas Department of Criminal Justice (TDCJ) has a new statewide toll free telephone number? This number is to help answer questions about reentry. For help, call the TDCJ Reentry and Rehabilitation toll free number at 1-877-887-6151.

Texas Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
(formerly known as Food Stamps)

SNAP is a Federally funded program that helps low-income families buy nutritious food from local food stores. SNAP assistance is available to qualifying families, elderly people, and single adults. Applicants must reside in Texas, and must apply in the county in which they reside.

Apply Online at

Or visit a local office.

IT'S TRUE! A Texas law went into effect allowing people with felony drug convictions to qualify for the federal Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program. Previously, a drug conviction meant a lifetime ban from food stamps. Supporters hope the change will reduce recidivism and enable felons to better integrate into society. But if they don't stick to the rules, recipients risk losing benefits. Violating terms of their paroles would lead to a two-year disqualification. If they re-offend on drug charges, they face a lifetime ban.
