

AUSTIN PUBLIC LIBRARY

Assistant Director of Libraries

The City of Austin, (pop. 900,000) tops numerous national lists for business, entertainment and quality of life. One of the country's most popular, high profile "green" and culturally dynamic cities, Austin has an award winning system of 20 branches that meet the needs of a highly diverse community.

The Assistant Director of Libraries will be expected to:

Be experienced in the operations of a large, complex library system, understanding the operations at both the Central Library and the branch libraries.

Demonstrate a collaborative, team-oriented leadership style, embracing employee participation at all levels of the organization and throughout the Austin Public Library system.

Actively seek out community participation and engagement with an openness to new ideas, the development of community partnerships and a strong commitment to continuous improvement and best practices.

Be committed to cost effective service delivery and experience in sharing services with other city departments and units of government with the overall goal of providing the best possible service to the Austin community.

Candidates must have a Master's Degree from an American Library Association (ALA) accredited college or university, plus six (6) years of progressively responsible experience in the library field, including four (4) years of experience in an upper management capacity. Salary range will be $129,000 to $139,000 based on qualifications and experience with excellent benefits/pension package.

To apply, please go to <http://www.austincityjobs.org/postings/62463> by Friday, October 20, 2017.

