

Thomas “Tommy” Tynes
thomastynes@gmail.com
(512) 413-6199

Tommy Tynes is a native Austinite who has worked at almost every level of government, including the legislative offices of three different Members of the Texas House of Representatives, the Texas Railroad Commission’s Office of General Counsel, the Texas Department of Licensing & Regulation’s Office of General Counsel, the U.S. Department of Transportation’s Office of Inspector General, and the City of Austin’s Law Department. Most recently, he served as an Associate in the federal governmental affairs office of a Fortune 500 company located in Washington, DC.

In the area of transparency and open government, Tommy has written legal memoranda related to the applicability of the attorney-client privilege and the attorney work product doctrine to open records requests under the Texas Public Information Act (PIA) and has drafted legal briefs related to administrative appeals under the federal Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

Tommy received his B.A. in Government from the University of Texas at Austin and his J.D. from the American University Washington College of Law in Washington, DC. During law school, Tommy served as Managing Editor for the Legislation & Policy Brief.