FREE. Drop in, no appointment needed.

You might be eligible for help paying for health insurance through “Obamacare,” the Affordable Care Act. Find out at this event! Volunteers will answer your questions about the law and health insurance. This event is “drop in” - no appointment needed!

Depending on your household’s income, the government may offer you special tax credits to pay for insurance. If you decide to apply for tax credits, volunteers will explain how you can get help with the application.

To find out if you are eligible for tax credits, it will help to bring:

- Income information
- Information about your immigration status (for example: pay stubs and immigration documents)

This workshop is presented by Insure Central Texas, a program of Foundation Communities, in collaboration with the Asian American Resource Center.
