

For Complete List of NOVEMBER Events, Go to Our Calendar on www.AustinTexas.gov/parks

Dougherty Arts Center

Free Admission

1110 Barton Springs Rd. www.DoughertyArtsCenter.org

AUGUST BROCCA – Abstract to Realism

Sculpture and Painting

Opens Nov. 8, through Nov. 27, 2012

Reception, Thursday, Nov. 7, 6:00 pm - 8 pm

Emma S. Barrientos Mexican American Cultural Center

Free Exhibits

600 River St.

www.MACCAustin.org

- Milagros de mi Corazon Class - Create your own "Milagro"
Saturday, November 10, 1 pm - 3 pm – Cost $12

Learn how to make this traditional tin handicraft, its history and significance.

- Sculptures of José Antonio Garcíaguerra - Main Gallery through Nov 24th.
- Tour Margaritas Cabrera's new art installation, "Uprooted Dreams."

On-Going Art Exhibits

Free Admission

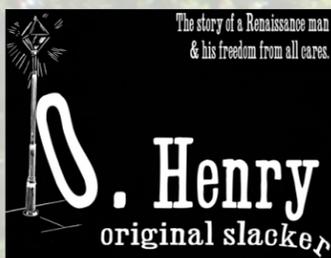

George Washington Carver Museum & Cultural Center
Embracing Africa - Ére & Reflections, An Exhibit of Yoruba Art.

Discover the art of Yoruba woodcarving – traditional & contemporary!

Now on display through Jan. 6, 2013

1165 Angelina St.

www.CarverMuseum.org

O. Henry Museum

The "Original Slacker", a new multi-media exhibit celebrating the 150th anniversary of O. Henry's birth.

Our new exhibition reveals how the writer became Austin's first "Slacker."

Now on display through Jan. 13, 2013

409 East 5th St.

www.OHenryMuseum.org

Joseph & Susanna Dickinson Hannig Museum

Free Exhibit

Enjoy our Newest Exhibit

Joseph Hannig and the Texas Germans.

Discover the captivating history and influence of the German community and how they contributed in developing today's Texas.

Now on display through February 23, 2013

411 East 5th St.

www.SusannaDickinsonMuseum.org