

In Honor of Black History Month 2014...

P-20 INSTITUTE for

MINORITY RESEARCH
& INNOVATION

“DISPELLING MYTHS HAMPERING BLACK STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT:
SEPARATING TRUTH FROM FICTION”

You're invited to a day of INTENSIVE CULTURAL ENRICHMENT TRAINING for teachers and faculty regarding the myths vs. reality of minority learning in America.

When:

Friday, February 7, 2014

from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Where:

George Washington Carver Museum & Cultural Center

1165 Angelina Street

Austin, Texas 78702 (Downtown E. Austin)

Special featured guest will be MR. JANKS MORTON, acclaimed minority education advocate and award-winning documentarian, with a special showing of the Best Documentary of 2007, HOODWINKED (Dispelling Myths about Blacks in America).

For assistance and more information, visit www.txhejournal.com/dispelling_the_myth or call 512.797.6989.

CLICK HERE TO REGISTER NOW!

Space is limited. Box lunches will be provided.

Featuring:

- DR. BERNICE STRAUSS (Texas), licensed clinical psychologist, researcher, former teacher and school administrator for SHSU;
- DR. FRED BONNER (New Jersey), professor and endowed chair at Rutgers University and author of The New Face of Giftedness: Recognizing High Achieving, Academically Gifted African American Males;
- MR. JOSEPH SCHECHTMAN (Rhode Island), researcher and promoter of Brain Dominance: The Key to Improving Retention and Graduation Rates for Minority Males;
- DR. STEPHANIE HAWLEY (Texas), Assistant Vice President of Student Success, Austin Community College
- DR. RICH REDDICK (Texas), minority education researcher/tenured faculty member, School of Education, UT-Austin

The P-20 Institute for Minority Research & Innovation is a registered 501c3 organization.

This Event Proudly Sponsored by

TEXAS HIGHER EDUCATION

JOURNAL