Cantinflas - The 2016 summer season of Cine de Oro opens with the biographical film about the life of Cantinflas. We want to thank AARP for making this possible. The untold story of Mexico's greatest and most beloved comedy film star of all time, from his humble origins on the small stage to the bright lights of Hollywood.

JUL 26

El Mago - Cantinflas goes from the streets of Mexico to the palaces of the Far East where he becomes a Caliph, a magician, and other characters, each one providing another facet of Cantinflas' human comedy.

AUG 30

Searching for Sugar Man - The story of Sixto Rodriguez: discovered and signed by two renowned producers, his record failed to sell well and Rodriguez disappeared into obscurity. A bootleg recording found its way into apartheid South Africa and over the next two decades he became a phenomenon.

SEP
27

El General - A glimpse into the life of Mexican President Plutarco Elias Calles, a revolutionary general who became president of Mexico in 1924. Time is blurred in this visually arresting portrait of a family and country living under the shadows of the past.

OCT 25

Writ Writer - Self-taught jailhouse lawyer Fred Cruz challenged the constitutionality of prison conditions in Texas in the 1960s. His extraordinary battle to expose the sanctioned brutality of life in prison blazed the path to state prison reform

NOV 29

Angelitos Negros - Angelitos Negros is a story of prejudice and sacrifice; the plot centers around a woman who does not realize her heritage, brought up as the "white" wealthy patron's daughter, she is actually the daughter of the black maid.
