

Please join us on the last Tuesday of each month at 9:30am for a screening of a film from the golden age of Mexican cinema at the Emma S. Barrientos Mexican American Cultural Center. Lunch will be served to seniors after the film. Please arrive 15 minutes early.

Admission is free.

JAN
27

El Mago - Cantinflas goes from the streets of Mexico to the palaces of the Far East where he becomes a Caliph, a magician, and other characters, each one providing another facet of Cantinflas' human comedy.

FEB
24

Si Yo Fuera Diputado - Tired of the same politicians, who never do anything to improve their welfare, people from a poor neighborhood decide to support the shoeshine boy (Cantinflas) for public office.

MAR
31

El Seminarista - Returning to his home town, seminarian Miguel is forced to trade the robes for a charro costume in order to solve several problems that appear in his way, including the female kind.

APR
28

Dicen Que Soy Mujeriego - Pedro is an incorrigible womanizer until he falls in love with a beautiful young woman- but she doubts his love is real. Can he convince her of the sincerity of his feelings?

MAY 26

Viva Mi Desgracia - A meek and mild young man who imbibes a magical concoction that counts tequila among its ingredients, transforms him into a two-fisted brawler and ladies' man.
