

Austin Parks and Recreation Department

The City of Austin Parks and Recreation Department is proud to offer affordable, fee-based summer programs for children 3-18 years of age. Summer Camps have something for everyone from young artists to teen adventurers. The Austin Parks and Recreation Department offers sports, paintings, photography, theatre, music, rock climbing, kayaking, caving, swimming, cultural enrichment and more. Some programs even offer before and after care for busy working parents. Choose from 37 POOLS and 25 RECREATION CENTERS AND MUSEUMS throughout Austin. Additionally, there are 10 LOCATIONS where you can join junior golf or tennis clinics.

Parks and Recreation summer programs provide a safe, fun, and educational environment for youth and teens. Offering full-day and/or half-day programs at affordable prices, these Summer Camps are sure to please the entire family. Please contact each center directly for any questions you might have about camp activities or the registration process.

No matter where you live or what activities you enjoy, we've got something for you!

The purpose of the Parks and Recreation Department is to provide, protect preserve a park system that promotes quality recreational, cultural and outdoor experiences for the Austin community.

The City of Austin is proud to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act. If you require assistance for participation in any of our programs or facilities, please contact our Inclusion Services Office at 974-3902.
