MEMORANDUM

Austin Police Department Office of the Chief of Police

TO: Mark Washington, Director of Civil Service

FROM: Art Acevedo, Chief of Police

DATE: April 3, 2012

SUBJECT: Temporary Suspension of Police Officer Adam Walker #4814
Internal Affairs Control Number 2011-1273

Pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 143 of the Texas Local Government Code, Section 143.052, and Rule 10, Rules of Procedure for the Firefighter's and Police Officers' Civil Service Commission, I have temporarily suspended Police Officer Adam Walker #4814 from duty as a City of Austin, Texas police officer for a period of ONE (1) days. The temporary suspension is effective beginning on April 9th, 2012, and continuing through 7/6/12 April , 2012.

I took this action because Officer Walker violated Civil Service Commission Rule 10.03, which sets forth the grounds for disciplinary suspensions of employees in the classified service, and states:

No employee of the classified service of the City of Austin shall engage in, or be involved in, any of the following acts or conduct, and the same shall constitute cause for suspension of an employee from the classified service of the City:

- L. Violation of any of the rules and regulations of the Fire Department or Police Department or of special orders, as applicable.

The following are the specific acts committed by Officer Walker in violation of Rule 10:

On November 6, 2011, Officer Marshall made a traffic stop on a taxicab van and cited the driver for changing lanes without signaling and almost striking Officer Marshall's patrol unit. Despite the fact that the driver was argumentative with him, Officer Marshall proceeded with the traffic stop without engaging in argument with the driver. Officer Walker arrived on the scene and began to argue with the driver. Officer Walker directed the driver to exit the van and step onto the curb so that they would not argue in front of the passengers. The argument between Officer Walker and the driver continued outside of the vehicle.

Officer Marshall approached the driver and explained the citation to him but the driver continued to argue that the officers had stopped the wrong car. Officer Marshall then had the driver sign the citation and the driver got back in his van and sat in his van without moving. Officer Walker told the driver that he was free to leave, but the driver wanted to sit and calm his nerves. Officer Walker then told the driver that he could pull over in the 7-11 parking lot to calm down and another cab could be called for the passengers. The driver wanted to transport the passengers and asked if he could just have a couple of minutes. When Officer Walker refused, the driver drove away.

By these actions, Officer Walker violated Rule 10.03(L) of the Civil Service Rules by violating the following rules and regulations of the Austin Police Department.

➤ Austin Police Department Policy 301.2(b): Responsibility to the Community: Impartial Attitude and Courtesy

301.2(b) Impartial Attitude and Courtesy

Employees are expected to act professionally, treat all persons fairly and equally, and perform all duties impartially, objectively, and equitably without regard to personal feelings, animosities, friendships, financial status, sex, creed, color, race, religion, age, political beliefs, sexual orientation, or social or ethnic background.

- (b) Employees will be tactful in the performance of their duties, control their tempers, exercise patience and discretion, and shall not engage in argumentative discussions even in the face of extreme provocation.

By copy of this memo, Officer Walker is hereby advised of this temporary suspension and that the suspension may be appealed to the Civil Service Commission by filing with the Director of Civil Service, within ten (10) days after receipt of a copy of this memo, a proper notice of appeal in accordance with Section 143.010 of the Texas Local Government Code.

By copy of this memo and as required by Section 143.057 of the Texas Local Government Code, Officer Walker is hereby advised that such section and the Agreement Between the City of Austin and the Austin Police Association provide for an appeal to an independent third party hearing examiner, in accordance with the provisions of such Agreement. If appeal is made to a hearing examiner, all rights of appeal to a District Court are waived, except as provided by Subsection (j) of Section 143.057 of the Texas Local Government Code. That section states that the State District Court may hear appeals of an award of a hearing examiner only on the grounds that the arbitration panel was without jurisdiction or exceeded its jurisdiction, or that the order was procured by fraud, collusion or other unlawful means. In order to appeal to a hearing examiner, the original notice of appeal submitted to the Director of Civil Service must state that appeal is made to a hearing examiner.

In addition, if this disciplinary suspension is for three (3) days or less, Officer Walker is advised of the following provisions of Article 18, Section 1, of the Meet and Confer Agreement:

The parties agree that when an officer is suspended for 1, 2, or 3 days the officer may choose one of two methods of dealing with the suspensions as listed below.

- a) Suspensions that may not be appealed. The officer may choose to use vacation or holiday time to serve the suspension with no loss of paid salary and no break in service for purposes of seniority, retirement, promotion, or any other purpose. The officer must agree that there is no right to appeal if this method of suspension is chosen.

- b) Suspensions that may be appealed. The officer may appeal the suspension to arbitration or the Civil Service Commission. If the officer chooses to appeal the suspension, the arbitrator or Civil Service Commission's authority is limited to ruling on whether or not the charges against the officer are true or not true. If the arbitrator or Civil Service Commission finds the charges to be true, there is no authority to mitigate the punishment. If the arbitrator or Civil Service Commission finds the charges to be not true, the officer shall be fully reinstated with no loss of pay or benefit.

Arbitration Costs on Appealable Suspensions

In the event that an officer appeals a 1, 2 or 3 day suspension to arbitration, it is agreed that the party that loses the arbitration shall be responsible for all costs of the arbitrator, including travel and lodging if necessary.

To facilitate such payment on the part of the officer he shall submit, at the time of appeal, a signed payroll deduction agreement that if the arbitrator rules in favor of the City he authorizes up to one hundred dollars ($100.00) per month to be deducted from his regular pay until such time as what would usually be the City's portion of the arbitrator's costs have been satisfied.
