Frontier Airlines Announces 14 New Destinations and Becomes Second Largest Carrier in Austin with 30 Destinations

Fares as low as $29

Austin – Low-cost carrier, Frontier Airlines is continuing its commitment to make flying to and from Austin more affordable by nearly doubling the number of non-stop destinations served to 30 cities, with 14 new low fare options to/from Austin Bergstrom International Airport (AUS) starting in April. Seven of the new routes will offer the only nonstop flights available from Austin. To celebrate the new service special introductory fares are available for as low as $29* each way at FlyFrontier.com.

The airline will begin low service on the following newly announced routes in April:

- Albuquerque, N.M.
- Buffalo, N.Y. (only nonstop)
- Charleston, S.C. (only nonstop)
- Detroit
- Indianapolis
- Jacksonville, Fla. (only nonstop)
- Milwaukee (MKE) (only nonstop)
- Minneapolis-St. Paul
- Omaha, Neb. (only nonstop)
- Portland, Ore.
- Providence (only nonstop)
- Reno, Nev. (only nonstop)
- Seattle
- Tampa, Fla.

“The greater Austin and Central Texas communities continue to respond well to our Low Fares Done Right philosophy,” said Josh Flyr, Vice President of network planning and revenue for Frontier Airlines. “We are proud to double down on our commitment and bring even more low fares to Austin with 14 more non-stop destinations. With 30 destinations now available, we are the second largest carrier at Austin Bergstrom in terms of cities served.”

“By nearly doubling their service again this year, Frontier’s robust growth adds to the economic vitality of Austin and central Texas,” said Jim Smith, Executive Director, Austin-Bergstrom International Airport.
