

The OACR

Facilitates the creation, expression and promotion of African-American Art and Culture identified as lacking in the 2008 Final Report of the Austin African-American Quality of Life Initiative. OACR will nurture and preserve the artistic legacy of the African-American Cultural and Heritage District through partnerships, programs and events.

Dance Studio

The following classes for various age and skill levels with limited discounted or free tuition for low-income residents of the African American Cultural & Heritage District:

- Dance classes
- Yoga classes
- Movement/Exercise classes

Production Room

A 200 square-foot room that will accommodate up to 12 persons for:

- Meeting space for Arts, cultural & community organizations
- Audition space
- Rehearsal space

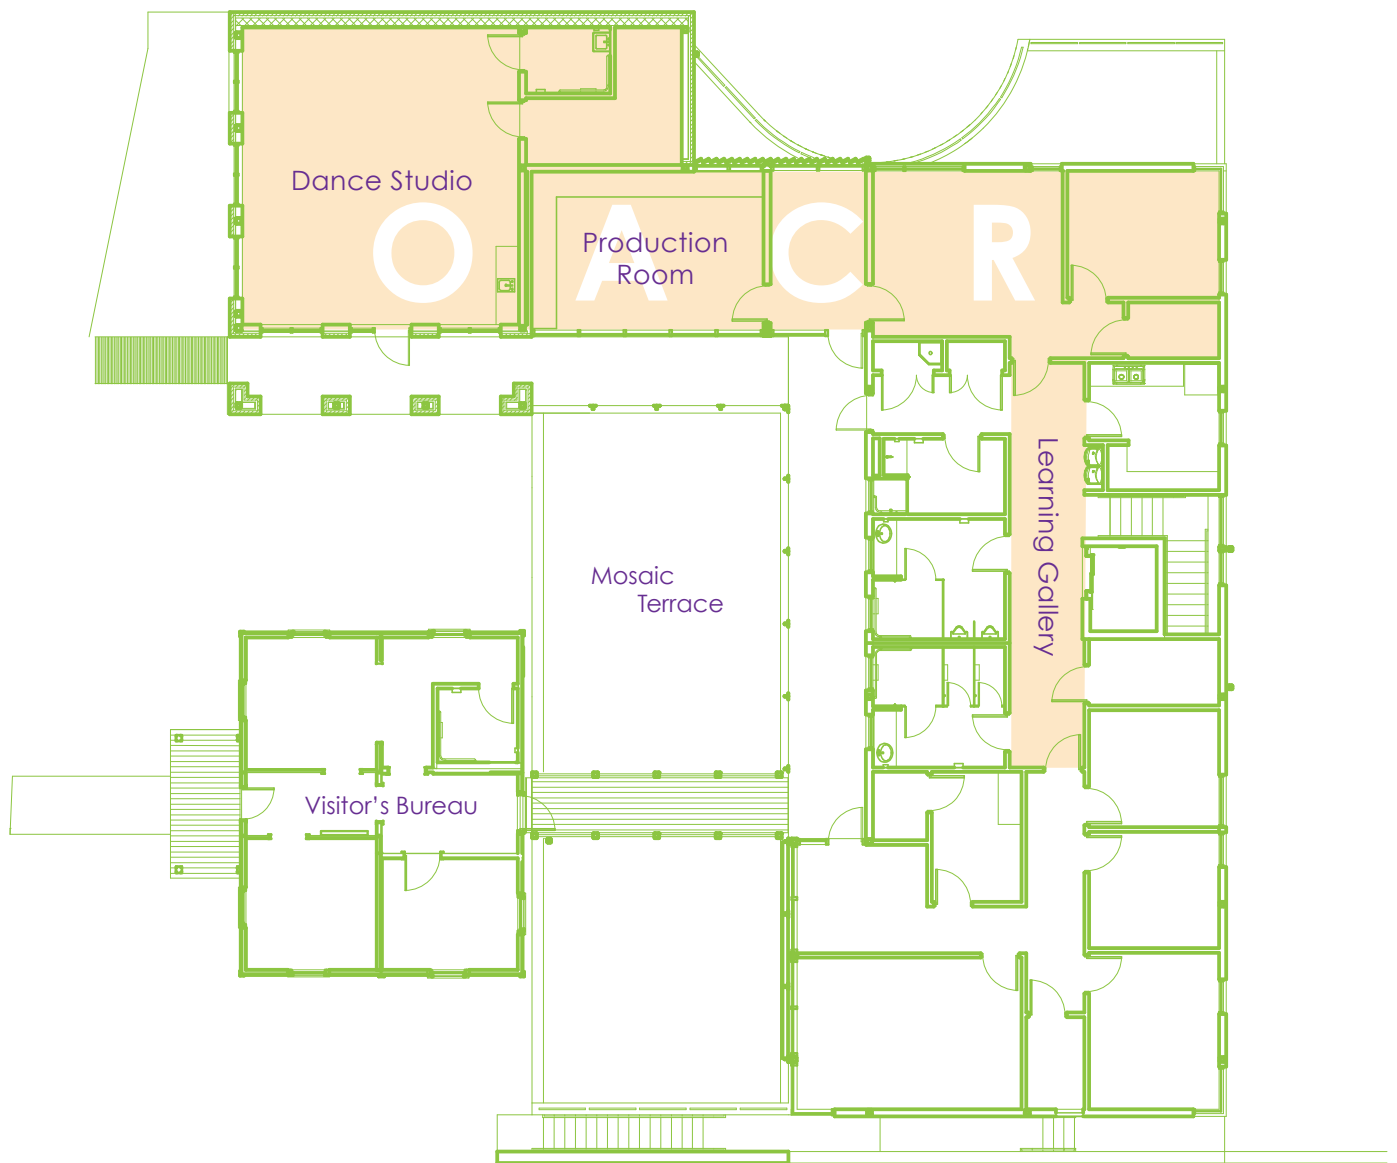

Learning Gallery

Quarterly-curated exhibits by regional artists and OACR's collection of traditional African art prints offer a cross-section of the visual artistry of the African Diaspora. Free and open to the public.

CELEBRATING OUR PROGRESS
HONORING OUR HISTORY

Carla Nickerson
Program Coordinator
512.404.4411

AUSTIN
CONVENTION CENTER
DEPARTMENT

