GUIDELINES

Community Rooms are designed to meet general non-commercial, informational, educational, cultural, and civic needs. To be eligible to use a community room, a group or organization must be not-for-profit, the meeting must be open to the public, must not charge a fee and should include five or more individuals. Solicitations, sales or money-raising is not permitted in the rooms.

To provide an opportunity for all groups and programs to use the community rooms, a group is limited to a maximum of two reservations of four hours each or one daily reservation up to 8 hours per month.

Rooms cannot be scheduled for weekly recurring meetings and/or reserved for the same program under different organization/individual names resulting in recurring programs.

Room offered free of charge on a first come, first serve basis with reservations accepted 90 days in advance. Reservations are recommended.

Upon arrival to the AARC, the primary contact person must sign in at the front desk and provide a DL or ID card for access to the space and equipment check out. The DL or ID will be returned at check-out.

Packaged refreshments may be served in the room; for other food a Food Permit is required. Kitchen access is not available for community room use.

Please leave meeting rooms as they are found. If the furniture is rearranged, it should be returned to the original arrangement at the end of the meeting and all trash removed, tables wiped, dry-erase boards cleaned, equipment returned and lights turned off and primary contact must sign-out at the front desk.

Smoking, alcoholic beverages, styrofoam, glass and open flames are not allowed.

Children may not be left unattended in the facility.

Groups will be charged for any damage to room(s), equipment or furnishings beyond reasonable wear and tear.

Permission to use the community room may be withheld from groups that have failed to comply with these guidelines or cause any damages or disturbances.

To change or cancel a reservation, please call the main line at 512-974-1700. If a group fails to show for two meetings in a row and does not call to cancel, future reservations may be denied.
