

CHILDREN IN HISTORY

July 7th, Afternoon in the Garden:

Kirsten Finds a Honey Bee Tree

Hear the adventure of American Girl Kirsten, a pioneer settler from Sweden who finds a honey tree. Try your hand at making butter, search for a possible honey tree on the trail, and sample some frontier sweets. The cabin will be open to view the pioneer cooking tools. Make a flower bouquet for your doll's hat.

Time: 1 to 4 pm

Location: Zilker Botanical Garden, 2220 Barton Springs Rd.

Cost: Free, Garden entry is $2 adults/$1 children/Srs.

For more information contact: 512-477-8672 ext 17.

Kaya's Games

Try your hand at traditional Native American children's games, fun for the whole family! Many of these activities are the kind a child such as Kaya would have enjoyed playing with her friends. Visit a tipi, learn to make rope the old fashioned way, make a game for your doll to play!

Time: 1 to 4 pm

Location: The Sheffield Education Center, Barton Springs Bathhouse, Zilker Park

Cost: Program is free! Parking in Zilker Park is $5 per car.

For information, contact 512-478-3170.
