Neighborhood Plan Assessment: Detailed Tables

A

Appendix

Summary of Neighborhood Plans

Neighborhood Plan Assessment

The consultant team prepared an assessment of all adopted Neighborhood Plans. This assessment included a compilation of the goals of all neighborhood plans, the definition of categories or themes for the goals, and a listing of the prohibited and conditional uses put in place through the adoption of the Neighborhood Plan Combining District ordinance. An early draft of the assessment was provided to the neighborhood plan contact teams (NPCT) and representatives from Austin Neighborhood Council (ANC) for review and comment in February 2014. The assessment findings have been refined to reflect the comments received from NPCTs and ANC.

The CodeNEXT team understands and respects the vast amount of work and effort expended by the neighborhoods and city in crafting the plans. The assessment is intended to help the team understand how the LDC and the neighborhood plans are, or are not, supporting each other to efficiently implement the visions set forth. The existing neighborhood plans will continue to be referenced as the CodeNEXT initiative continues.

The assessment will also help the team to identify common themes, patterns, and issues among Austin's neighborhoods, as well as to identify unique or unusual situations so that as the code is developed in 2015, appropriate regulations can be created for different conditions.

Neighborhood Plan Assessment Tables

Neighborhood Plan Goals

This table lists all the goals from the adopted Neighborhood Plans and assigns theme(s) to each of the goals. These themes help the CodeNEXT see what goals of the various neighborhood plans had in common and what might differ from neighborhood plan to neighborhood plan.

Themes from Neighborhood Plan Goals: Detailed

This table compiles all the neighborhood plans and the themes that appeared in them in to one large matrix. This table provides some understanding of how often themes appeared across the neighborhood plans.

Themes from Neighborhood Plan Goals: Summary

This table summarizes the data into a simpler format, this table also appears within the Code Diagnosis Report.

Neighborhood Plan Assessment Findings

Common Themes Across Neighborhood Plans

Common themes emerged from the assessment of the goals of the individual neighborhood plans. The goals from each neighborhood plan were categorized into a number of themes. The most common themes that appeared relate to:

- Transportation (complete streets, streetscape, transit, and traffic);
- Neighborhood character (maintaining established neighborhood character & assets, and preserve historic character);
- Protection and enhancement of creeks and open spaces; and
- Compatible land uses.

Neighborhood Plan Goals

Goal	Themes
Central West Austin Combined NP
01. Preserve and protect the historic character and integrity of Central West Austin’s predominantly single-family neighborhoods, with their neighborhood-serving commercial centers, civic areas, safe parks, and attractive open spaces, so as to maintain the neighborhood’s quality of life, avoid increasing traffic, preserve the mature tree canopy, protect creeks and the lakes, and prevent flooding. Development of property as office, commercial, retail, multifamily, or civic uses should be in accordance with the Future Land Use Map, as informed by the Plan text, and should be appropriately oriented, scaled and buffered to protect the existing single-family homes from any intrusion and adverse effects from higher intensity uses. The future use of the Brackenridge Tract and the Austin State Supported Living Center property should take into account the impact of such use on the surrounding neighborhood, and if developed should be compatible with the existing single-family homes in the neighborhood. Buffering to protect the existing single-family homes in the neighborhood is also desired. Italicized items represent changes made based on comments and feedback received from the Neighborhood Contact Teams and members of ANC, as of April 3rd 2014. Any additional comments or feedback received after April 3, 2014 will be incorporated in the final document.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Compatible Land Uses;</li> <li>• Drainage;</li> <li>• Focus Growth;</li> <li>• Maintain Established Neighborhood Character &amp; Assets;</li> <li>• Preserve Historic Character;</li> <li>• Traffic</li> </ul>

Goal	Themes
02. Support the livability, vitality, and safety of the Central West Austin neighborhood by providing streets that enhance its neighborhood character, encourage walking, bicycling, and transit use, and better serve its schools, library, parks and other key destinations. Support neighborhood character with NP-noted “key themes”: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Do not widen streets</li> <li>• Enforce speed limits</li> <li>• Protect against cut-through traffic</li> <li>• Control on-street parking</li> <li>• Maintain acceptable traffic service</li> </ul> 03a. Preserve, connect and enhance existing parks and recreational areas and facilities in the Central West Austin Planning Area, as well as open-space on large properties (e.g., Austin State School and the Brackenridge Tract) for the health, recreational and historical benefits they bring to the community. Create opportunities for additional public open space such as trails, pocket parks, and landscaped traffic islands, as well as parks and recreational areas and facilities on large properties. 03b. Parks, open space, &amp; environment: Central West Austin will encourage a healthy urban ecosystem that uses trees and appropriate vegetation to make the neighborhood pleasant and unique, improve environmental conditions, and connect its social and natural heritages. 04. Central West Austin will foster and improve life for all ages through community interaction. Italicized items represent changes made based on comments and feedback received from the Neighborhood Contact Teams and members of ANC, as of April 3rd 2014.
